The contestant with the third highest number of tickets sold and accounted for shall be named 1st Runner-up.
14. The Queen, Royal Princess, and the Royal Court shall be determined by the Queen's Committee and awarded on Coronation night.
15. Prerequisite and duties of the newly selected Queen and Royal Princess
 - (a) The Queen and Royal Princess will represent the 2010 Liberation Festivities Committee at as many functions as possible during their reign during and after the Liberation Day celebration. The Queen and her court will be provided escorts from the Guam Army National Guard coordinated by the Queen's Committee.
 - (b) All personal appearances or requests for product endorsements as the Liberation Day Queen shall be approved in advance by the Queen's Committee Chairperson, as well as any photographic sessions and picture releases as the role of Liberation Day Queen.
16. If the newly designated Queen or after she is crowned cannot fulfill all of the express duties, or violates any rule set forth in the guidelines, she will immediately relinquish her title, crown, scepter, and off-island travels upon the direction of the Queen's Committee Chairperson. The Royal Princess will then be eligible for the title.
17. The newly designated Queen and Royal Princess must sign a copy of these rules and other terms of agreement which will serve as her contract with the 66th Liberation Festivities Guam Island Fair throughout her year of reign.
18. Other rules and regulations may be added by the Queen's Committee from time to time if it will be for the benefit of the proper decorum of the entire 2010 Miss Guam Liberation Queen Contest.
